PASTORS COLUMN

A TV news camera crew was on assignment in southern Florida filming the widespread destruction of Hurricane Andrew.

In one scene, amid the devastation and debris stood one house on its foundation. The owner was cleaning up the yard when a reporter approached him.

“Sir, why is your house the only one still standing?” asked the reporter. “How did you manage to escape the severe damage of the hurricane?”

“I built this house myself,” the man replied. “I also built it according to the Florida state building code. When the code called for two-by-six roof trusses, I used two-by-six roof trusses. I was told that house built according to code could withstand a hurricane. I did, and it did. I suppose no one else around here followed the code.”

When the sun is shining and the skies are blue, building our lives on something other than the guidelines in God’s Word can be tempting. But there’s only one way to be ready for a storm.

Build your life on the solid foundation of God’s Word. It can be trusted! It is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path.

God’s Word is truth! But beware of those who will water down the truth, question it, or use it to create confusion. Spend some extra time in His Word this week.

God Bless,

Pastor Bill Hines

Quiet space

“Rest is not idleness,” said John Lubbock, “and to lie sometimes on the grass on a summer day listening to the murmur of water or watching the clouds float across the sky is hardly a waste of time.”

Most of us need more, not less, rest built into our daily routine. Only when we are quiet can we hear God’s whisper.

Summer is a great time to find a peaceful, outdoor spot to read, rest and pray — even if only for a few minutes. God is eagerly waiting for us to make space for him.

SMALL GROUPS

Parents' Night Out

Parent's Night Out is scheduled for August 29th at 5:30 p.m. in the Activity Hall. Parents Night Out is two hours that you can fellowship with other adults or take care of some things you need to get done. It is for families with children who are 5th grade and younger. See Shirley Anderson for more info.

Men's Prayer Meeting

All men are welcome each Friday morning at 7:30 for prayer in the sanctuary. Breakfast follows at an area restaurant.

50 Plus Day Trip

On August 22nd the 50 Plus will be going to Logan, Ohio to have lunch at the Ole Dutch Amish Restaurant.

We will go to the very large flea market in Logan. The time we spend will be determined by the interest we have in the flea market. No tickets this time! We are just planning for a day of fellowship. Bring a friend. This will be our last one day trip until November. Sign the sheet on the Senior Board in the foyer.

Forgive the inexcusable

To be a Christian means to forgive the inexcusable, because God has forgiven the inexcusable in you. This is hard. It is perhaps not so hard to forgive a single injury. But to forgive the incessant provocations of daily life - to keep on forgiving the bossy mother-in-law, the bullying husband, the nagging wife, the selfish daughter, the deceitful son - how can we do it? Only, I think, by remembering where we stand, by meaning our words when we say in our prayers each night, "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." We are offered forgiveness on no other terms. To refuse it means to refuse God's mercy for ourselves. There is no hint of exceptions and God means what He says

-C.S. Lewis

A prayer for summer

A rippling sea of green and gold
Is shimmering before us
As wind stirs the tall corn,
Wave after green wave rises high,
Reaching for the summer sun.

Lord God,
When you summon seeds
From these furrowed fields,
How readily they obey!

Like the myriad crops,
Help us grow steadily:
Help us stretch, ripen
Round out, unfold.

In the warm rays of your strength,
Help us yield goodness!
